

2010 Local Government Seminar:
What Does Local Government Do and How Do I Get My Students to Care?

A two-day training for social studies educators, after school providers, and other professionals who seek to teach young people about how their communities work

Sponsored by the NC City & County Management Association

Statesville, NC

Thursday, July 22, 2010, 12:00 – 7PM (Includes Dinner)

Friday, July 23, 2010, 8:30AM – 2:30PM

Every day, local government touches the lives of North Carolinians and provides the services essential for functional communities, growing businesses, and healthy families. It is local government that supplies water to our faucets, collects our trash, moves traffic through our downtowns, and cuts the grass in our parks and ball fields. It is also local government that delivers care and counseling to those facing difficult times and responds with qualified personnel to life's emergencies.

Participants in this seminar will learn first-hand the role of local government in North Carolina and then explore pedagogical strategies for teaching young people about how local government in North Carolina works. Highlights of the Seminar will include: meeting with elected and appointed local government officials, sharing dinner with the City Manager of Statesville, and touring local government facilities.

PARTICIPANTS WILL RECEIVE:

- Lesson plans aligned to the NC Standard Course of Study
- 1.4 renewal credits
- Mileage reimbursement
- One night's accommodations on 7/22
- Meals – lunch and dinner on 7/22, breakfast and lunch on 7/23

REGISTRATION:

All participants must take part in both days of the training. While Consortiums lessons provided are geared for use in Civics & Economics classrooms, this training is open to any current and middle or high school educator or after school provider interested in teaching about local government. Space is limited to 25 registrants and priority registration will be given to first time participants. To register for this training, fill out the following application form and submit it to Anita Buie by fax, 919.843.2558, or email, buie@sog.unc.edu. Your registration is not final until your application form has been received and confirmation returned. If you have not received a response via email within two business days of your application submittal, please email Anita Buie at buie@sog.unc.edu to ensure your registration was received.

CANCELLATION:

The NC Civic Education Consortium is dedicated to assisting teachers by providing free trainings, resources, and materials. The CEC does not require a deposit or fee to attend our trainings; therefore, we ask that registered participants needing to cancel do so at least one week prior to the training date. This will enable us to fill the spot with someone else from the waiting list. Failure to provide sufficient notice of cancellation will prohibit the registrant from signing up for future trainings.
